

Bellman-Ford

Recap: Relaxation is checking if the shortest path to a vertex can be improved by going through another vertex.

Bellman-Ford finds shortest simple path if no negative cycle exists.

Overall, Bellman-Ford runs in

$$O(VE)$$